

Christian Poem: God Leads As We Pray

Christian Poem on Prayer, Trust & Destiny

God Leads As We Pray

Pray to God in every season
In the power of His name
With complete hope and trust in Him,
Acknowledge His sovereign reign

For He shall surely give to you
All that your heart desires—
Because you pray in the will of God
And do what He requires

Then you shall live in His presence,
Being firmly held in His hand—
For as you keep on trusting Him,
He'll cause you to understand

The plans that He has for your life
And what He's called you to—
How your destiny can be fulfilled
As He's gently leading you

For we are the people of promise
With a heritage of faith before—
So, keep on praying with hope in God
And your eyes fixed on the Lord.
