

Christian Poem: Your Love

Christian Poem on God's love flowing through us to others

Your Love

May I be filled with your love, Lord
So it may flow from me
Into the lives of those I meet
To touch them in their need

And may I not be indifferent, Lord
To another's hurting soul,
But give me an ear to listen to them
And arms that reach out to hold

And Lord, may I not be afraid to weep
With those who truly grieve—
When they have given up on love,
May they see your love in me

Give me a heart of true compassion
Like you, my saviour, showed
And let not my life be only for me,
But for others who may not know

Your love, mercy and grace, O Lord
And forgiveness of all sin
For it's only through you, we have new life
And fresh hope instilled within

Yet, I know dear Lord, I often lack
Real love in my life
For it's only you that can give the love
That fills the void inside

And it's only then I could ever give
To others with hurts so deep—
So, change me Lord and fill my heart
With your love for others' needs.

© By M.S.Lowndes

Christian Love Poetry

Devotionals: God's Unconditional Love | Godly Love | The Father Heart

Christian Poem: Loving Father

By using this poem, you signify that you have read & agreed to my 'Terms Of Use'.
<https://www.heavensinspirations.com/terms-of-use.html>